POLICY

1. School profile

The vast majority of children who attend the school are from the town of Inverloch itself. Kongwak is situated about 10 kilometres to the north; and the children attending there come in from the surrounding district. It is not uncommon for children who live in Inverloch to go to school at Kongwak for a period of their primary schooling, and vice versa. Over the last six years the Inverloch enrolment has been grown to 460 - and currently fluctuates up to 485; whilst Kongwak's has increased each year from as low as 15 in 2000 to its maximum of 52 in 2005 - and is currently at 26

At Inverloch-Kongwak Primary School we have a range of students from diverse socio-economic backgrounds, (where socio-economic refers to family income, education, occupation and wealth). The vast majority of our students speak English at home. Our students come from a wide range of family units, including single parents, step-families, blended families, nuclear families, foster-care, extended family care, etc.

Most of the students entering Prep at our school have attended pre-school, most from Inverloch Pre-school (or Korumburra in the case of Kongwak), while others have attended pre-schools or day care facilities in other towns and we do have some children entering the school who have not experienced any formal pre-school.

Absence and lateness to school are a concern for us. We have above average absenteeism when compared to the state. We also have a number of children who are frequently late to school. Both absenteeism and lateness impact negatively on student engagement, wellbeing and learning. Lateness also impacts negatively on teaching and on another students' learning. We strive to provide a nurturing and challenging environment that empowers students to reach their personal best, both academically and socially.

2. School values, philosophy and vision

Inverloch and Kongwak Primary School's Statement of Values and School Philosophy is integral to the work that we do and is the foundation of our school community. Students, staff and members of our school community are encouraged to live and demonstrate our core values of respect, integrity and kindness at every opportunity.

Our school's vision is to empower students to reach their personal best, and fully equip them to contribute positively to society as happy, healthy young adults.

3. Wellbeing and engagement strategies

Inverloch and Kongwak Primary school has developed a range of strategies to promote engagement, an inclusive and safe environment, positive behaviour, and respectful relationships for all students in our school.
